Oregon Handball players,

Our dear friend and tireless handball supporter Chatten Hayes has a bold new haircut and an important story to share. You can read about it by clicking here.

The first WPH R48 Pro Stop of the 2017-18 season took place on October 6th – 8th in Atlanta, Georgia. The #1 ranked Killian Carroll defeated the #4 ranked Armando Ortiz in the finals. The full results can be viewed on R2sports by clicking here. The next stop on the WPH R48 Pro Tour is in Tucson, Arizona on November 10th – 12th. Our state and regional champion Dalton Beall is currently ranked #23 and will attempt to qualify in Tucson. You can watch the event on www.Race4Eight.com and follow the results on R2sports by clicking here.

Nine-time national champion David Chapman passed away on October 10th, leaving the handball community in shock. You can read more info from the WPH by clicking here and clicking here, and from the USHA by clicking here.

The inaugural Portland Classic was held on October 27th – 29th at the Multnomah Athletic Club. The tournament had 91 players in attendance, including 17 women, 18 college students, and 9 junior players! Congratulations to Dalton Beall for winning the Open singles division and earning a travel stipend to play in a future WPH R48 Pro Stop. View the full tournament results by clicking here.

The Robert O. Smith tournament has been renamed the Salem Handball Classic and will be held at Courthouse Fitness in Salem on November 10th – 12th. The entry deadline is Saturday, November 4th so get signed up as soon as possible. You can enter the tournament on the R2sports website by clicking here.

The USHA's First Ace program deserves a shout-out for the support they've given to the Sheldon High School handball program. Learn more about the First Ace program by clicking here.
